

Join ARIZONA LIST and Borderlands Theater for

“Between Pancho Villa and a Naked Woman”

by Sabina Berman

Friday, February 26th

6pm: Arizona List Pre-Play Party

The Wilsons' Home

305 #G E. University Blvd. 85705

(Directly across the street from the Historic YWCA)

We will be serving delicious Mexican appetizers, discussing the play, and Arizona List!

7:30pm: Play will begin at Zuzi's Theater, 738 N. 5th Ave.

A witty and incisive comedy from one of Mexico's leading playwrights. A glimpse at the primal macho hidden within the progressive intellectual and the desire to be loved smoldering within a liberated woman. “Between Pancho Villa and the Naked Woman” brandishes humor as a tool of critical reflection on gender roles and feminist issues in contemporary Mexican society.

“Between Pancho Villa and the Naked Woman” has been produced in Mexico and the US. Its premiere production earned seven awards from the Mexican Critics Association in 1994, including BEST NEW PLAY OF THE YEAR and was eventually made into an award-winning film.

Tickets for Play and Party:

$30 ($20 of your ticket price will go towards Arizona List)

To reserve your tickets please call (520) 882-7406. You must mention Arizona List!